Students may be awarded credit at Purdue University by means other than regular enrollment in and completion of a course. Beginning January 1979, this "directed credit" is noted on the academic record as follows:
BY EXAM - Awarded on the basis of achievement in a Purdue departmental proficiency examination.
CEEB AP - Awarded on the basis of achievement in College Entrance Examination Board Advance Placement tests.
CLEP CR - Awarded on the basis of achievement in the College Level Examination Program.
CR ESTB - Awarded on the basis of CEEB Math Achievement Test score or Purdue Composite score.
DEPT CR - Awarded on the basis of substantially equivalent experience, successful completion of a more advanced course, etc.
 Prior to January 1979, all BY EXAM (for new students), CEEB AP, CR ESTB and CLEP CR credit was combined into the single notation CR ESTB.

TRANSFER CREDIT

Course credits accepted in transfer from other institutions are listed under the appropriate headings. For undergraduate students, the course numbers and titles reflect Purdue University equivalents, with the exception of Indiana University courses taken at the jointly-administered Purdue-Indiana University campuses in Indianapolis and Fort Wayne. With the exception of Indiana University credits at the jointly-administered campuses, credits earned in the Polytechnic Statewide program and credits earned in certain study-abroad programs, no grades are transferred and transfer credit hours are not reflected in the cumulative totals. Effective Fall 2008, the following are now included in transfer credit: College Level Exam Placement (CLEP), College Entrance Examination Board Advance Placement (CEEB AP), and International Baccalaureate (IB). *Transfer credit with grades of D+, D or D- will be applied towards the State Transfer General Education Core for all Indiana public institutions. This will be annotated with a grade of TX and cannot be used to fulfill institutional degree requirements. For details, see http://www.in.gov/che/files/STGEC_BW_Binder_Final_5.19.15.pdf.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Prior to September 1953, courses designated by letter rather than number (e.g., English A) were non-credit. Courses numbered 1 through 99 were primarily for undergraduate credit. Courses numbered 100 through 199 enrolled advanced undergraduate and some graduate students. Courses numbered 200 through 299 were for graduate students. Between September 1953 and Summer 2008, the following numbering system was used: 001-049, Precollege and deficiency courses; 050-099, Nondegree courses (e.g., agriculture short courses); 100-299, Lower-division courses normally scheduled for freshmen and sophomores; 300-499, Upper-division courses normally scheduled for juniors and seniors; 500-599, Dual-level courses that may be scheduled by juniors, seniors and graduate students for graduate credit; 600-699, Graduate-level courses. In certain circumstances, an undergraduate student may take a 600-level course. In Fall 2008, course numbers were converted to five digits, and professional-level course numbers (80000 to 89999) were added.

CREDIT TYPES

Regular Credit - All Purdue University credit is reported in terms of semester hours, whether earned during a 16-week semester or a summer session.
